FAUST AT FROTHINGHAM.

Presented by George Leacock and a Good Company.

A fair sized audience witnessed the production of "Faust" at the Frothingham theater last night. The garden scene was splendidly given, as was also the scene at the Walpurgis glen, which was most realistic.

George Leacock was an excellent

Mephistopheles and was accorded a hearty reception. Miss Isabel Pitt

Lewis as Marguerite maintained her part admirably. The whole performance disclosed an admirable and well trained company.

SOCIAL AT TABERNACLE CHURCH

Funeral of Miss Clara Brown from Her Late Home on North Main Avenue. Entertainment of St. Paul's Tourist Club—Other News Notes.

Classes No. 9 and 10 of the Tabernacle Congregational church Sunday school gave a Welsh entertainment and social in the church parlors last evening. The room was very neatly decorated, and a large number attended. John B. Jones was chairman. The programme contained many excellent features, among which were vocal solos by Miss Lizzie Williams, Mrs. Lewis, Hugh Jones and John Howells. A Welsh poem was read by Benjamin Evans, a trio consisting of Miss Fannie Jones, Mrs. Lewis and Hugh Jones sang. After the entertainment refreshments were served by young ladies and men attired in the Welsh costumes of sugar loaf hats, plaid shawls and knee breeches.

The programme was prepared by Henry and Margaret Evans, assisted by the teachers, Reese D. Reese and John B. Jones. The members of the classes are: Misses Maggie Evans, Lizzie Williams, Margaret Reese, Annie Darby, Rachel Reese, Cassie Jenkins, Louise Jenkins, Sarah Reese, Mary Reese, and Henry Evans, John Jones, David Williams, Robert Williams, Henry Jones, Reese Reese and Thomas Evans.

Funeral of Mrs. Brown. The remains of the late Mrs. Clara Brown, wife of Howard S. Brown, who died on Monday at her home on North Summer avenue, were interred in the Dunmore cemetery yesterday afternoon. A brief service was conducted at the home, after which the remains were conveyed to the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, where an eloquent sermon was preached by Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D. He spoke of the many estimable qualities of the deceased. The floral tributes consisted of a handsome pillow inscribed "Mother," a clock and several casket bouquets. The pall bearers were: John Loucks, John Messer, Thomas McGrover, Henry Engel, Jacob Diem and Martin Mohr.

An Evening Social. St. Paul's Tourist club, which was but recently organized, gave another of its delightful socials last evening in St. Paul's armory. Timothy McCoy was chairman. The first number on the programme was a piano solo by Joseph McDermott, Miss Minnie Durkin then gave a recitation. Frank McDonough gave a fine exhibition of club swinging, which was received with applause. Excellent solos were rendered by Daniel Williams and Miss Ruddy, Anthony Freeman recited. Vocal solos were then rendered by Miss M. Ruddy and Mr. Coyne; violin solo, John Embrey, and piano solos by Misses Cassie Dwyer and Mame Cavanaugh. A dance followed, for which music was furnished by Joseph McDermott.

Minor News Notes. The employees of the British mine are idle this week owing to repairs. William T. Davies, of Washburn street, has returned from a visit at Audubon.

NORTH END NOTES.

Miss Emma Davis, of Main street, returned home yesterday from a week's visit with friends in Carbondale.

The members of Company H, Thirtieth regiment, will hold a social in the armory next Tuesday night under the direction of Peter Saltry.

Contractor Stansbury is putting down a substantial flagstone walk in front of the Tripp building on the corner of Court street and Providence road.

The armory was filled last evening when the Excelsior band gave their ball. Before the ball the Excelsior and Citizen's bands paraded the streets.

Evan Davis, of Spring street, was married to Miss Jennie Weeks last Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's father, Eli Weeks, on Spring street, by Rev. W. F. Davis.

The friends of David G. Evans, of School street, who has been ill with rheumatism for over a year, have arranged for a benefit festival to be held in Company H armory on Dec. 13.

The choir of the St. John's church will hold an entertainment in the church parlors tonight. The proceeds are to be used for the payment of the new heater which they have recently put in place.

John Meakley, a Poleander, was arrested about midnight Tuesday night by Lieutenant Spellman for raising a disturbance on the street. Alderman Horan fined him $2 and costs and sent him to the county jail for ten days to sober up.

The monthly meeting of the Pastors' union of the Congregational churches of this valley will be held in the Welsh Congregational church next Monday afternoon and evening. Rev. Peter Roberts, of Oliphant, will preach the sermon in the evening.

James Burns, of Cusick avenue, who was arrested Tuesday night by Lieutenant Spellman, charged by John Reese with the larceny of an overcoat, was committed to the county jail yesterday morning by Alderman Horan in default of $200 bail.

Peter Kelley, who was arrested Tuesday night by Patrolman Perry for fighting in Edward Loftus' saloon on Market street and also for assaulting Conductor Wilson earlier in the day, was sent to the county jail yesterday morning by Alderman Horan in default of $400 bail.

The annual bazaar of the Park Place Methodist Episcopal church is now in progress in the church parlors under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society. A large number attended the opening last evening. The parlors were handsomely decorated, the booths and walls all being decorated with bunting, etc. The chocolate booth is in charge of Misses Clara Vail and Cora Preston; the fancy booth is in charge of Mrs. G. R. Clark, who is assisted by seven young ladies; the candy booth is presided over by Mrs. C. T. Miller, assisted by five young ladies; Mrs. Frances, assisted by six young ladies, had charge of the paper flowers. Mrs. M. B. Hawhurst and four young ladies were in charge of the observation booth, where a prize was offered to the person who could remember the greatest number of things which he saw. Mrs. Houser and three young ladies offered articles for sale at the general booth. Mrs. John Payne and fifteen young ladies served supper and Mrs. Edward Tuttle and eleven young ladies served the ice cream. The booths were all designated by hand-some signs.

A farewell reception will be held this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Dale, on North Main avenue, by the members of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church Sabbath school. Mr. Dale and family will shortly occupy their new and handsome dwelling on the east side.

What child wouldn't laugh at pictures like this? It's one of Palmer Cox's "Queer People" conceits. Parts 2 and 3 of the "Queer People" are now on sale at The Tribune business office. Each part costs 10 cents; if by mail, 12 cents.

Scranton's Business Interests. THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully. Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

I am prepared to receive a limited number of piano pupils. For terms, etc., address Richard F. Lindsay, 822 Mulberry street. Or at Powell's Music Store.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Mrs. Thomas Barrett Assaulted by Her Husband's Nephew.

WARRANT OUT FOR HIS ARREST

He Walked Into the Barrett House and Threw His Hat Into Mrs. Barrett's Face—Mrs. Matz Young Falls Down Stairs.

A brutally assault was last night committed on Mrs. Thomas Barrett, of the upper end of the Twentieth ward, by her husband's nephew, John Monaghan. In telling of her experience Mrs. Barrett states that she was seated with her husband at the supper table, when Monaghan made his unbidden appearance. He was intoxicated and his first salute, after he closed the door, was to throw his hat in her face. She stood up and he grappled with her, catching her by the throat and almost choking her before her husband could interfere. He also struck her with his fists on the head and left marks upon her. But for her two daughters just arrived home he would have done her serious bodily injury.

She went before Alderman J. E. O'Malley, of the Twentieth ward, and had a warrant sworn out for his arrest, but he decamped. Constable Thornton was intrusted with the warrant and is looking for Monaghan.

Accident to Mrs. Young. Yesterday morning Mrs. Matz Young, of Willow street, stumbled on the stairway and fell to the bottom, fracturing her forearm at the wrist joint. She was otherwise bruised internally. Dr. Kolb was summoned and set the fractured arm. His opinion is that the other injuries sustained will not amount to any consequence.

Opening the New Road.

The new Hickory street line was to have been opened for a trial trip yesterday, but a few minor details had to be arranged before running a car over the road. Yesterday the line was finished and the work of adjusting the trolley and feed wires. The connection was made with the main trolley wire on Cedar avenue and today General Manager Beeten will make a trial trip. The line has been extended as far as Beech street on Stone avenue.

Shorter Paragraphs. Miss Hannah Gardner, of Pittston, is visiting friends on Remington avenue. A special meeting of the William Connell Hose company will be held next Monday evening.

A masquerade ball under the auspices of the Viasa Social club will be held at Germania hall on Dec. 10. Joseph Shorten has begun to excavate the foundation for a new residence in the 1300 block on Pittston avenue.

The choir of St. John's church will sing Millard's mass, accompanied by Cusick's orchestra, on Christmas Day. A benefit ball for Mrs. Honora Coggins, whose home was burned recently in Minooka, will be held at Callary's arcade on the night of Jan. 21.

Little Heener's funeral was held yesterday afternoon and was largely attended by friends of the family. Interment was made in Pittston Avenue cemetery.

A Voluntary Statement. Mrs. Ella R. Nolan, of 209 State street, Coburn, N. Y., says:

"For the past seven years I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism and rheumatic gout. My ankles, feet, wrists and hands were swollen to an enormous size, and I was unable to bend a joint of them. I was compelled to crawl on my hands and knees. A great part of the time I was confined to my bed, unable to help myself in the least. I had the best medical attendance, but obtained only temporary relief. One day a gentleman calling upon some business, seeing my helpless condition, said:

"If you will get some of Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills, I think they will cure you."

I did not have much faith, but I was in such a helpless condition, could scarcely move about, could not close my hands at all, got up and down stairs sideways, that I thought I would try the pills. Accordingly, I got two boxes of Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills, and after taking them three days, the pain all left me and has never returned even in the dampest weather. Of course I was encouraged and kept on taking them, and am entirely cured. I have now taken six boxes, and can do any sort of housework without the least pain. The swelling is all gone, can move my joints naturally and feel as well as ever I did. I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills and will gladly see any one who will call at my house, 209 State street, and verify the truth of this statement. I heartily recommend Dr. Potter's Rheumatic Pills to all who suffer from rheumatism.

They are a radical cure for rheumatism, inflammatory rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, hot joints and chills, and all diseases depending upon and having their origin in the uric diathesis. Price, $1.00 a box. For sale by Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail, Scranton, Pa.
